Mum finds needles in kids' playground

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A HORRIFIED mum is warning other parents to be on their guard after finding needles discarded by drug users in a children's playground where she took her two-year-old daughter.

Gillian Bayford, 36, visited the playground at the Recreation Ground in Camps Road, Haverhill, on Friday afternoon with daughter Aimee, but ended up having to take her home in tears after discovering several needles there.

Mrs Bayford, whose husband Adrian runs the Record Pedlar shop in Queen Street, said she was also concerned to see groups of drinkers regularly congregating in various parts of the town and felt the police were not doing anything about it.

She said: "I am just disgusted by it. You should be able to take your kids to the playground without them being confronted by this. I am trying to bring my children up properly, but how can you when they are faced with things like this."

"It was a glorious day on Friday and there were a lot of people there. I just want to let people know about this and to warn them to watch out for what is left there. I could not let Aimee run about in there, I let her go on the swing and then we had to leave."

"The needles have been removed now and it is not the council's fault, but I just don't think it is fair that little children should be confronted by this. You take kids to a playground then have to explain why they cannot play there."

"I grew up in a small town and we never saw any drugs and people were terrified by the police. Everyone knows who these people are, but they seem quite chatty with the police, they don't seem bothered or to do anything about them."

Inspector Andrew Mason, Haverhill's new sector commander, said the Safer Neighbourhood Team had been trying to tackle the problem of this group of drinkers, and had found them accommodation, but they had been evicted because of their behaviour.

He said local publicans and shops were co-operating by refusing to serve them drink, but urged the public to help too, by not buying drink for them.

He said: "I think what happened in the playground is unacceptable and I would urge members of the public to report any incidents to us and we will take robust action. We are aware of this problem and we are trying to deal with it, but we need the help of the public to do so. We are trying to strike a balance between supporting these individuals and taking enforcement action if they are not going to help themselves."

Striking effort by staff for our appeal

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

SUPERMARKET staff put on their bowling shoes to help our Weekly News Hospice at Home Appeal and their employers matched what they raised.

Staff at Sainsbury's in Haycock's Road, Haverhill, organised a bowling night at the Haverhill Snooker and Bowl Club in Chalkstone Way, and 60 of them went along to show off their bowling skills.

They raised a total of £311 and applied to Sainsbury's, which doubled the total to a bumper £622.

Ian Norris, fundraiser at the hospice, visited the store this week to receive the cash.

Julie Collis, spokesman for Sainsbury's, said all the staff agreed they would like to help boost our appeal, which was launched in February to raise £40,000 to pay for patients in the Haverhill area to receive services in their own homes rather than travelling to the Bury St Edmunds Hospice. Thanks to generous readers and local groups, we have already passed the halfway mark of £20,000 and more offers of help are coming in all the time.

Julie said: "The bowling event was a huge success and we would like to thank Hazel and the staff at the Haverhill Snooker and Bowl for making the event possible. The fresh food department were the winning team and received silver plates and Matt Cullen (fresh foods manager) was the highest scorer receiving a silver cup.

"A great night was had by all and everyone was very happy to be supporting the Hospice at Home Appeal."

■ Haverhill Fire Service will be raising cash for the appeal, as well as the Fire Service Charity and the Haverhill Food Bank, while celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Ehringshausen Way fire station with an open day on Saturday from 2-4pm. Everyone is welcome, including former staff members and those who have been helped by the service in the past. There will be a display of photographs, new and vintage fire engines, as well as demonstrations of tackling a road traffic accident and a house fire.

■ On Saturday, October 11, Haverhill Lions Club will be backing our appeal with a stall on Haverhill Market Square on World Sight Day.

The Lions Club has always been involved with sight and internationally has raised cash over the past two years to tackle river blindness and other conditions.

On that day they will be spreading out a large picture of a lion on the square and asking members of the public to cover it with coins, preferably gold coloured £1 or £2 coins.

The proceeds will be divided between the Weekly News Hospice at Home Appeal and Lions sight charity efforts.

■ A recent shopping trolley competition held at the Haverhill Co-op store in Haverhill was won by Mrs Mizon, of Bailey Close, who correctly guessed the value of £75.30.

How can you help?

WE CANNOT reach our target without your help – so the Weekly News wants to hear from anyone who is organising fund-raising discos, barbecues, dances or other events to boost the hospice appeal.

Tell us what you are planning and we will help publicise your event to make sure it is a success and raises as much money as possible.

If you already have an event organised, why not pledge all or part of the proceeds to the appeal and benefit from the extra publicity to help a really good cause.

A special bank account has been set up at Barclay's Bank. Cash or cheques can be paid in directly to the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, sort code 201612, account number 80981842.

An on-line donations page has also been created at www.justgiving.com/haverhillweeklynews, which also gives details of how to donate by text, and you can donate by phone on (01284) 715582, at the hospice shop in High Street, Haverhill, or the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Haverhill.

'Shocking research results' on effects of credit crunch

A SPECIALIST debt counselling charity based in Haverhill is redoubling its efforts to help residents who are struggling in the worsening economic situation.

Christians Against Poverty (CAP) says a recent survey it conducted shows the current financial crisis is seeing more and more residents struggling to make ends meet.

The national charity, which set up a centre in Haverhill in October 2005, recently commissioned YouGov to carry out research, the results of which prove families really are feeling the credit crunch.

Some 53 per cent of the UK's population believe their finances are in a worse state now than they were last year, and one in five people said their finances were "much worse".

As news of property crashes and a recession continue to grab the headlines, the charity also revealed that under-25s are managing to weather the financial storm more successfully than the over 45s.

Almost 60 per cent of 45 to 54-year-olds believe they are in a worse financial state than last year but this figure dropped to only 41 per cent amongst 18 to 24-year-olds.

More worryingly, the survey proved that the credit crunch threatens to undo the Government's best efforts to get people eating more healthily.

A total of 50 per cent of all 35 to 44-year-olds confessed that their diet had deteriorated since last year.

Henry Wilson, centre manager, said: "These results are truly shocking and evidence that we are slipping further into financial difficulty as a country."

"Through our local centre in Haverhill we are able to offer hope and a solution to those struggling to make repayments and we are seeing people turn their finances around.

"With the right support, guidance and sound financial principles, people can avoid the worst excesses of this economic downturn and work their way out of debt."

Haverhill residents concerned about their finances are being urged to contact the free service on 0800 3280006.

Alternatively, visit www.capuk.org where tips on how to eat on a budget and other savings are also online.

Mayor opens latest store

WHSMITH'S is the latest retail giant to open up in Haverhill. The town mayor Les Ager officially opened the premises to the public yesterday. Cllr Ager said the opening of the store on the High Street, opposite textile factory Gurtens, was a positive sign for Haverhill. He said: "The fact this massive national company now has premises in Haverhill is certainly good news."

"I am sure it will be hugely welcomed and used by residents." With more than 500 high street stores across the UK, as well as 120 airport, train station and motorway service area stores, WHSmith's sells a wide range of newspapers, magazines, stationery, books and entertainment products.

Annual meeting

FLOWER enthusiasts can attend Haverhill and District Flower Club's meeting on Monday. The club is holding its AGM at Haverhill Arts Centre at 7.30pm but visitors are welcome. Refreshments will be served. For more information visit www.haverhill-uk/flowerclub or call Valerie Phillips on 07890 168944.

Tour of Clare

THE hidden treasures of a market town will be revealed in an historical guided walk on Saturday. Tours of Clare will be running at 2pm, giving residents the chance to discover more about the area with the help of a fully-qualified guide. The cost is £3 for adults but children go free. For more information or to book a place call St Edmundsbury Tourist Information Centre on (01284) 764667.

History talk

OLD buildings in Haverhill will be the subject of a special talk next Thursday. The Haverhill group of the Suffolk Family History Society is holding the event at the Old Independent Church, Haverhill, at 7.30pm. The talk will be led by Clive Paine on buildings, beliefs and the rise of non-conformist churches. For more information email asdf11@dsl.pipex.com

Help needed

HAVERHILL in Bloom is desperate for help in running its gardeners' market on Sunday. The committee is calling on residents who can spare a few hours throughout the day, where assistance in running the car boot, loading and unloading plants etc is needed. The market will run from 7am to 5pm.

If you can help, call Tim Marks on (01440) 709975.

Prison for driver in fatal head-on crash

A MAN has been jailed for four years after killing two women in a head-on smash as he drove on the wrong side of the road.

Leon Burrell, 28, committed a "gross error of judgement" when his Ford Transit van crashed into a Vauxhall Vectra on the A505 near Pampisford, Cambridge Crown Court heard.

Burrell told police he thought he was on a dual carriageway.

The Vauxhall's rear seat passenger, Rosamund Patten, 68, from Great Abington died at the scene.

The driver, Barbara Webb, 63, from Little Wratting died two days later in Addenbrooke's Hospital.

A third woman in the car survived the crash.

The women were returning home from an evening out at the Chequers pub in Pampisford.

Burrell, a carpet fitter, was driving home to Nottingham after finishing a job in Haverhill on November 27.

He admitted two counts of causing death by dangerous driving at a previous hearing.

Judge Anthony Bate sentenced Burrell to four years and disqualified him from driving for five years.

Prosecutors said Burrell had admitted in a police interview he had been on the wrong side of the road, thinking he was still on a dual carriageway.

Burrell had passed three road signs warning him he was not and was about 300 metres past the end of the dualled section, the court was told.

Michael Proctor, mitigating, said Burrell, of Ridgeway Walk, Nottingham, had shown genuine remorse.

■ REMORSEFUL... Leon Burrell said he thought he was on a dual carriageway.

Burrell has since lost his job, his house was likely to be repossessed, his wife and four-year-old son have left him, and he was suffering psychological problems as a result of the crash, the court heard.

Well-known GP dies, aged 66

A LONG-standing member of the Mid-Anglia General Practitioners Accident Service (Magpas) has died aged 66.

Dr David Pearson, also one of Haverhill's best-known GPs, first came to the town in 1973 and started saving lives with Magpas almost straight away.

Dr Pearson, who leaves his wife Lynne, a sister, a son, three daughters and five grandchildren, initially had a surgery in Strasbour Square, but set up a new one at Stourview Medical Centre behind Boots in 1986.

Dr Pearson was also involved in community work. He was a mental health advisor for East Anglia and in recent years worked at Western Compass, a drug rehabilitation unit in Bury, for which he received a police award.

He was also a police surgeon and gave medical support at major events such as the country and western weekends on Haverhill Showground.

A Magpas spokesman said: "Dr David Pearson was a long-standing member of Magpas almost since it was set up in 1971."

"He regularly attended accidents and incidents in and around the Haverhill area for 20 years and many people are alive today thanks to him.

"His services to Magpas and the community were very much appreciated."

"Our thoughts and condolences go to his family and friends at this sad time."

Dr Pearson was also a bell-ringer at St Mary's Church in Haverhill.

His funeral will take the form of a requiem mass at St Mary's at 12.45pm on Wednesday, October 8.

Traders welcome new plans to revamp street

BY Jo Deeks

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

TRADERS in Queen Street have welcomed enhancement plans for the area but would like to see longer restrictions to keep traffic out.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council held a drop in session for traders to unveil enhancement plans for the street, including gates at either end to replace "road closed" signs - which have been criticised by traders - new paving, new street furniture, trees, bollards and other improvements.

The enhancement plan is aimed to start next year and be completed before the new Tesco store opens in 2010 at the nearby Station Yard site. It is aimed to complement work which Tesco must fund as part of its planning consent to improve links from its store to the town centre.

Most traders from Queen Street turned out for the event and although they felt it was a good idea, they believed the current restrictions prohibiting traffic in the street from 10am to 4pm on Monday to Saturday should be extended to get the full benefit.

Earlier this year traders complained about the unsightly barrier put up during the hours cars are banned.

Plans to upgrade the street include new gates at either end of the street, as well as possibly some across other minor accesses.

Vickie Sackett, who runs the Bottom Drawer underwear shop, said she believed a longer traffic ban was needed for safety reasons. She said: "Once the street opens to traffic at 4pm it becomes a race track.

They come flying round the corner and we all risk getting run over. It would just be so much nicer for everyone if they did not have to worry about cars coming through at all."

Adrina Byford, from Record Pedlar, said: "It is just going to be a waste of money if you are still going to have cars coming through with all the dirt and fumes. I would like to see traffic banned completely."

Leaflets with full details of the plans are available from the council offices with a questionnaire section seeking views on them.

Pupils happy to be healthy

APPLES and bananas have replaced crisps and chocolate at break time at a primary school which has just achieved a Healthy School award. Pupils enjoy a healthy tuck shop as part of Haverhill's Coupsals Primary School's policy of encouraging a healthy lifestyle. Staff, parents and pupils at the school have worked hard over the past 18 months to achieve healthy school status. The accreditation involves all aspects of school life and there are now a greater variety of physical activity clubs on offer with more than half of the pupils taking part in a sports club this year. Pupils' achievements are regularly celebrated and termly awards are given, with those winning major awards enjoying a day at Colchester Zoo in the summer. Kitchen staff shared examples of healthy school meals during a parents evening and some parents also offered ideas for a healthy packed lunch. These initiatives have helped towards an increase in school meal numbers and healthy packed lunches. Linda Arrowsmith, Healthy Schools co-ordinator, said: "We understand the importance of investing in this programme to help raise pupils' achievements and ensure that Coupsals is a happy, safe place to be."

FILM FANS at Haverhill only have to wait just over a week for the doors to open at the town's new cinema on Friday, October 10.

Popular Q103 DJ Pat Sharp will be hosting his Big Drive Home show live from the new five-screen Cineworld complex in Ehringshausen Way from 4pm to 6pm on the opening day, accompanied by Jules Mayne.

The five-screen multiplex cinema seats 897 and as part of the opening celebrations, Cineworld Haverhill will be running three promotional screenings of the latest films on Wednesday, October 8, with the audience taken from winners of local competitions. This will be followed by free "Movies for Juniors" screenings on Saturday, October 11, which will include family favourites and classic films from the last six months.

Cineworld Haverhill general manager Paul Willden said: "My team and I are really excited about opening the Cineworld in Haverhill."

"As well as screening all the latest Hollywood blockbusters, we look forward to bringing a selection of independent films for the people of Haverhill to enjoy."

"The cinema has historically been a place that brings the community together and we are confident this will be the case for Haverhill."

Lisa Mason School of Dance will be celebrating the opening of the cinema on Saturday with a dance showcase in the Haverhill Market Square starting at 1.30pm.

On the same day, famous film star lookalikes will be appearing in various locations around Haverhill town centre giving people the chance to have their photographs taken with the stars of Hollywood!

will also be handed out to Haverhill residents as they enjoy the live entertainment throughout the day.

The Drabdet Smock pub on the Market Square will be hosting a Cineworld pub quiz once a month starting next Wednesday at 6.30pm.

Questions will test the film knowledge of Haverhill pub goers and a set of Cineworld cinema tickets will be up for grabs for one deserving winner.

Every Saturday morning, Movie for Juniors welcomes children to the cinema for only £1 with special Cineworld entertainers hosting fun and games before the film.

Cineworld Haverhill looks forward to screening some of the most exciting blockbusters over the next year, including the eagerly anticipated High School Musical 3 to be released on October 24.

■ To mark the opening, Cineworld has teamed up with the Haverhill Weekly News to offer lucky readers 30 tickets for a special screening of the Coen brothers' film Burn After Reading starring Brad Pitt and George Clooney before the cinema officially opens.

The special screening will be at 5.30pm on Wednesday, October 8. The first 15 correct entries will win two tickets to go along.

All you have to do to enter the competition is give the date of the official opening of the new Cineworld and email it to Alex.Preece@hillandknowlton.com by 5pm on Monday.

Phone box to be sponsored by council

BY Jordan Day

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A PUBLIC telephone box which was down for removal has been saved by Haverhill Town Council.

As part of a nationwide scheme, BT chiefs were going to get rid of the phone kiosk on Chalkstone Way, Haverhill, claiming not enough people were using it and that it was not covering its costs.

But the town council has vowed to rescue the telephone box, agreeing to pay £500 over the next 12 months to keep it up and running.

The funding is part of BT's new "Sponsor a Kiosk" initiative which offers local authorities the chance to contribute to the costs of maintaining the payphone, with BT still on hand to maintain the service and the box.

Town council members voted to take on the sponsorship at a meeting on Tuesday.

Gordon Mussett, Haverhill Town Council clerk, said: "Council members felt the kiosk was too close to the A143, a road notorious for car crashes and sadly many deaths.

"In the event of an accident in the area, public payphones come in very handy and if someone did not have a mobile phone to hand, it would certainly be the quickest way to make a 999 call.

"For this reason, and the fact that many residents wanted the phone box to remain, we have taken on the 'Sponsor a Kiosk' scheme, which will see us paying £500 over the next 12 months to keep it in place.

"We will see how the scheme goes and review the situation a year down the line."

But a BT spokesman said the company would continue to remove phone kiosks unless local authorities want to save them.

He said: "BT is committed to providing a public payphone service, however over the years as usage has declined, BT has been constantly reviewing and where necessary rationalising its public payphone estate in order to meet demand.

"Almost 60 per cent of our payphones are unprofitable, with almost 6,000 phones making less than one call a month."

CAB success as woman wins £5,000 bank claim

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

A CITIZENS Advice Bureau money advisor who took on a big bank on behalf of a client managed to win back more than £5,000 for her – much of it in fees she should never have been charged.

Sue Thurston has been money advisor for Haverhill Citizens Advice Bureau (CAB) for the past three years, after spending more than 20 years as a chartered surveyor working in local government. Her victory on behalf of a client in her late 50s, who retired early through ill health and had suffered from mental health problems, took almost a year to achieve. However, several more similar cases are pending and Sue's message is that if you are persistent enough you can win the day.

The case in question arose after the woman's bank gave her a series of loans and when she struggled to make the payments she got into arrears with her Council Tax, water and other bills. She was given consolidation loans which reduced her payments but increased the period of repayment and she was also sold loan protection insurance, which was of no help to her as she was not in employment.

The woman ended up overdrawn by £1,200 and although it was a relatively small amount it was put into the hands of bailiffs and she feared she would lose her home.

When the woman visited Sue at the CAB last February, she wrote to the bank but after receiving only standard letters back complained to the Banking Ombudsman. Eventually in July the Ombudsman ruled in her favour that she should be repaid all fees and charges made since 2000.

Sue said: "I was absolutely thrilled for her. With her mental health problems she had been very worried about it all. She did not know who to turn to, but she got a lot of support from us and she did win the day in the end."

"Most people get into debt through some change in their circumstances, either losing employment or illness, and banks do not always give people the best advice. Things can spiral out of control, they start off little and grow until people cannot deal with them any more on their own."

Anyone seeking advice on money or other issues can call into the CAB at the Lower Downs Slade Centre for Voluntary Agencies on Monday and Friday from 11am to 2pm, or Tuesday to Thursday from 11am to 3pm, without an appointment.

Call (01440) 762194 to book an appointment, or call the advice line on (01440) 704012 or email office@haverhillcabnet.org.uk

Cash award boosts hospital

WEST Suffolk Hospital NHS Trust has been awarded a cash boost of more than £400,000 after successfully reducing the incidence of healthcare associated infections.

The money has been handed to the trust in two stages after it beat tough targets set by NHS East of England for cases of MRSA bloodstream infection and Clostridium difficile.

The hospital was awarded the first payment in February and has now been given a further £207,000.

The boost comes after only three cases of MRSA bloodstream infection were recorded at the hospital against a target of seven in the period from October 2007 to March 2008.

In addition, the trust recorded 29 cases of C difficile compared with a target of 36 between January and March of this year.

Had the hospital not achieved these targets, it would have been liable to repay the first sum and would not have received the second.

Floral delight at Suffolk's 'Westminster Abbey'

ONE of Suffolk's most celebrated churches was filled with beautiful flower arrangements at the weekend.

St Peter and St Paul Church at Kedington, has been dubbed the Westminster Abbey of Suffolk because it still maintains many elaborate monuments to the influential Barnardiston family and other unusual features such as a triple-decker pulpit.

On Saturday and Sunday the church was open to visitors from 11am to 5.30pm for its Flower Festival, with a special Festival Evensong service with special preacher Bishop Clive Young on Saturday.

A special cooked breakfast was on offer on Saturday morning, at Orchard House, opposite the church, with proceeds going to boost church funds for maintaining the church.

Prizes for most money raised

MONEY is rolling from the Bridge The Gap walk. More than 2,000 people took to the streets of Cambridge for the city's premier charity walk on Sunday, September 14. Bridge The Gap aims to raise £40,000 this year for three charities – our sister paper the Cambridge News, appeal for a £1 million Teenage Cancer Trust (TCT) unit in Cambridge, the Arthur Rank Hospice and Press Relief, the News' community fund. Olympic swimmer Mark Foster, who officially started the walk, said: "I would like to thank all of this year's Bridge The Gap walkers. You are helping to Bridge The Gap – well done." There are great prizes on offer for those who raised the most sponsorship money for their four-and-half mile walk. The top adult fundraiser will win a ticket for two adults and two children for Beauty and the Beast at the Cambridge Corn Exchange at Christmas, donated by Q103. The child who has raised most money will win a bike, provided by Falcon Cycles, while the top corporate fundraising team will get a trophy and champagne. A £100 book token from the Cambridge University Press bookshop is the prize for the school that raises the most money. Sponsorship money must be sent in by Thursday, October 16, to Bridge The Gap, Press Relief, Cambridge Newspapers Ltd, Winship Road, Milton, Cambridge CB24 6PP.

Fuel thieves hit 'softer' targets

BY Jack Grove

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

SCHOOLS, churches and hospitals are among the premises hit by a rising tide of fuel thefts.

Figures obtained by the Weekly News show a dramatic increase in fuel theft in rural Cambridgeshire this year with criminals cashing in on the soaring price of petrol, diesel and oil.

The number of fuel thefts in the county's central division in the first eight months of this year increased by 37 per cent, compared to the same period in 2007 – up from 22 incidents in 2007 to 30 in 2008.

The figures released under the Freedom of Information Act also reveal how thieves have started to attack "softer" targets this year, raiding a church in Huntingdon, a school in St Neots and the heart hospital in Papworth in June this year.

Farms, haulage yards and private homes have also been raided, with thieves stealing up to £1,000 of fuel at a time.

John Bridge, a former haulier and now chief executive of Cambridgeshire Chambers of Commerce, said: "These thieves are totally ruthless – they have utter disregard for their victims and they don't care who they hurt."

"I think we're going to see a lot more thefts in the run-up to Christmas as people tend to attempt to make some extra cash about this time."

"With the high fuel prices this year, it will be an increasingly attractive prospect. There is a lot of money in it if you consider a lorry might contain up to 1,000 litres of fuel."

"However, it's an extremely dangerous practice to remove and transport this fuel. There are very strict rules for moving quantities of fuel for some very good reasons and these thieves are putting themselves and the public at great risk by stealing this fuel."

The increase in thefts comes as the average price of diesel has risen 24p since the beginning of the year – a rise of 22 per cent.

Julie Collins, crime reduction officer for the police, urged people to protect their premises from fuel thieves.

She said: "The offenders are not opportunist thieves. They know where to look and have the right equipment."

"Any companies who store fuel on their premises need to be aware these offences are taking place and we would advise them to be extra vigilant."

"There are a number of anti-theft/siphoning devices available on the market which may be worth considering. Always lock your vehicle fuel caps and, if possible, lorry drivers should park vehicles' fuel tank to fuel tank' which should limit access."

Man admits fraud claims

FAILING to declare that both he and his wife were working while claiming benefits landed a man in court facing fraud charges.

Simon Whitworth, 42, who pleaded guilty to benefit fraud, was given a two-year conditional discharge and ordered to pay full costs of £218.

St Edmundsbury Borough Council brought the prosecution against Whitworth, of Belmont Court, Haverhill, at Bury St Edmunds Magistrates' Court.

He was charged with dishonestly failing to notify a change of circumstances (that he was self-employed) to obtain benefit under Social Security legislation, and failing to notify a change of circumstances, namely that his wife was employed by Compass group UK, and later with Royal Mail Group.

The charges related to the period from February to December 2007.

The court was told that in February last year Whitworth submitted a claim for housing and Council Tax benefits to St Edmundsbury Borough Council.

No work was declared for Whitworth or his wife, but in May Mrs Whitworth started working for Compass Group, then later that month for Royal Mail Group.

Whitworth also admitted he had been working on a self-employed basis while claiming benefit and had not declared the work.

As a result of the offences there were overpayments of £2,711 housing benefit and £283 Council Tax benefit, making a total of £2,994 overpaid.

Callum will join Fagin's gang and get the chance to meet Mr Bean

BY Jo Deeks

Email:
editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

■ SHOCKED... Callum Henderson.

SCHOOLBOY Callum Henderson will be treading the boards with Mr Bean in December after winning a six-month contract to play one of Fagin's gang in the West End production of Oliver.

Nine-year-old Callum, who has never had a singing lesson, is expected to be the youngest performer in the show and will be appearing with many older children who have been trying for years to win such parts. He succeeded at his first ever audition.

Callum's achievement is all the more remarkable because his dad died just a week before he took part in his first audition, which was part of the BBC series to choose a boy for the role of Oliver. The plucky youngster sang at his father's funeral, then went on to win his way to the last 50 from 3,500 original applicants and was featured on the screen, although he failed to reach the final 12. Previously at St Felix Primary School in Haverhill, but now at St Louis Middle School in Bury St Edmunds, Callum received an invitation to audition for the Sylvia Young Agency in London, who took him on their books and asked if he would audition for the rest of the cast.

Although he had been advised to make arrangements for his accommodation and education during the six month stint in the show, Callum had to go for his final audition in September and was waiting on tenterhooks until the call finally came to confirm he had the part.

Proud mum Tina Henderson, of Parkside, Haverhill, said although Callum sang all the time at home, she had not been aware of how good his voice was until it was spotted by his school music teacher Petra Stephenson.

Tina said: "The school have been brilliant. His music teacher said she had never heard such perfect pitch and suggested that we might contact some form of stage school. He has always enjoyed singing, but you don't really take much notice of them, everyone thinks their child is good."

"I phoned him at school to let him know he had got the part, but he did not really seem to take it in that much. He seemed completely shocked and then that night he said 'I am going to meet Mr Bean', as Rowan Atkinson is playing Fagin."

"Rehearsals start in October and it will be a wonderful opportunity for him."

Single council is favoured by county

MEMBERS of Suffolk County Council have voted for a single unitary council to combine its functions with the seven existing district and borough councils.

A special meeting of the county council endorsed its view to press for a county-wide council which will replace the existing authorities.

Cllr Jeremy Pembroke, county council leader, said: "I am pleased the council has supported our submission to the Boundary Committee to have a single unitary authority in Suffolk, including Lowestoft."

"We believe it meets the criteria of having a broad section of support, while providing strategic leadership, neighbourhood empowerment, value for money and affordability for all Suffolk residents. We believe a single authority, including Lowestoft, is best placed to lead Suffolk into a strong and prosperous future."

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

But other councils, including Forest Heath and St Edmundsbury, are backing three new unitary councils – one for the west, one for the east and one for the North Haven area including Ipswich and Felixstowe.

This proposal also has the support of Haverhill Chamber of Commerce members.

The Boundary Committee's draft proposal for Suffolk is a council for Ipswich and Felixstowe with another council for the rest of the county, apart from Lowestoft.

Consultations closed on Friday and the Boundary Committee will make its recommendation to the Secretary of State by December 31.

Asbestos 'scare' at county schools

THE potentially deadly building material asbestos is present in almost every school in Cambridgeshire.

Figures obtained by the Weekly News under the Freedom of Information Act reveal 240 of the 251 council-run schools and nurseries in the county contain the substance, which gives off tiny fibres linked with deadly diseases such as lung cancer, asbestosis and mesothelioma.

Cambridgeshire County Council says the material is perfectly safe unless it is disturbed – but teaching unions claim daily classroom activities could dislodge the substance and put children at risk.

Dr Mary Bousted, general secretary of the Association of Teachers and Lecturers, told the Weekly News: "Putting a drawing pin into a classroom wall or slamming a classroom door could be enough to sign a death warrant."

The council insists the material is regularly inspected and its safety procedures have been praised by the Health and Safety Executive.

But Tom Woodcock, president of the Cambridgeshire branch of the National Union of Teachers – which is calling for the material to be removed from schools –

BY Stephen Exley

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

said: "There are lots of teachers who are losing years off their lives by working in buildings with asbestos."

"There is an inconsistency between the information we have about asbestos, and the health and safety risks, and what the council is saying about it being safer to keep the asbestos in."

"We want all schools to be a high standard, and there are plenty of schools in the county which are not in a good condition."

Dr Bousted added: "ATL members voted overwhelmingly at our annual conference in March for the Government to have asbestos removed from all education establishments by 2010."

"The health of thousands of young people and those working in education is far too precious to be ignored."

Health risks posed by asbestos come from microscopic fibres which can escape into the air, and settle in the lungs. Prolonged exposure can cause serious respiratory diseases.

In August, 28-year-old teacher Leigh Carlisle from Lancashire became one of the youngest ever victims of mesothelioma.

Although she worked as a primary school teacher in Oldham, it is thought she developed the illness while a school pupil.

The blue and brown forms of asbestos have been banned in the UK since 1984, with the white form prohibited since 1999.

Until then, asbestos was commonly used in protective coatings on walls and ceilings and insulation around boilers and pipes. It was also combined with cement in wall and ceiling panels, tiles, pipes, gutters and corrugated roof panels.

Cambridgeshire County Council told the Weekly News all schools containing the material were thoroughly surveyed in 2000-01.

Cllr David Harty, cabinet member for learning, said: "Many buildings contain asbestos; it only becomes a problem when it is disturbed, demolished or exposed."

"The Health and Safety Executive does not expect the authority to remove asbestos unless it is unsafe or the building in question is demolished or refurbished."

Waste plant taking shape

A NEW recycling plant which waste bosses hope will turn Cambridgeshire's rubbish into compost is beginning to take shape.

The shell of the new mechanical and biological treatment (MBT) plant at Donarborn's waste management park at Waterbeach is now visible to drivers on the A10.

Around 80 per cent of every tonne of rubbish delivered to the plant, which should be operational by 2010, will be turned into material that can be recycled or reused.

It will mechanically sort "black bag" waste – rubbish not put into recycling collections by householders – remove metal, glass and plastics for recycling and reuse and compost the remainder to create material which can be used to restore old quarries as well as for cultivation of turf and bio crops, for green energy production.

More than 50 per cent of

waste in Cambridgeshire is recycled and Cambridgeshire County Council, which signed a £750 million private finance initiative to create the new MBT plant, hopes it will keep even more rubbish out of landfill sites. Progress was assessed by Cllr Sir Peter Brown, the council's lead member for economy, environment and climate change, who went to see the construction work recently.

He said: "This plant is an essential part of our on-going work to significantly reduce the amount of waste which goes to landfill."

"But MBT plants are not an alternative to recycling. They are a sustainable way of managing the waste that is left over after residents do their bit by recycling on their doorsteps and through their local recycling centres."

The council hopes the new plant will not only increase recycling rates but also reduce costly landfill charges, which will rise from £8 per tonne in 2008-09 to £48 in 2011-12.

A 28-mile (45km) radius restriction on where waste going into the plant can come from will be applied to ensure Donarborn only deals with rubbish from Cambridgeshire.

Group shows it's never too late to learn

IT IS never too late to learn and an open day by members of a University of the Third Age (U3A) group showed just how many different skills they have mastered. The Haverhill U3A group, which has been around for more than 15 years and already has 240 registered members, opened its doors this week to encourage others to join.

Town mayor Les Ager went along to offer his support and displays were mounted of work produced by members of the various study and interest groups, including paintings and craft work.

Jan Howley, chairman of the group, said its ethos was that it is never too late to learn and you can still enjoy doing so at any age.

The group is open to those aged 52 and over who are not working and many members continue into their 80s and 90s. There is a general meeting with a speaker at Haverhill Arts Centre on the last Tuesday of the month, as well as 26 smaller groups covering a range of subjects including history, walking, art, music, bridge, theatre, craft work, outings and more.

Monthly meetings take place at Haverhill Arts Centre from 10.30am to noon and anyone interested can go along and attend up to three meetings for £1 a session before deciding if they would like to join.

Chance to buy spring bulbs

GARDENERS will get the chance to stock up on some plants and bulbs for the spring and youngsters will be encouraged to try their hand in the garden at an autumn Gardeners' Market on Sunday.

The Haverhill in Bloom Committee is in its third year of organising spring and autumn events on the town's recreation ground, to help fund a range of activities throughout the year.

The event on Sunday will run from 9am to 2pm, including a car boot sale with pitches £5 on the day. There will be a variety of different plants and shrubs on sale, as well as a children's section encouraging youngsters to plant up a garden of their own.

Valerie Moreton, of the Haverhill in Bloom Committee, said their future plans included planting another 18,000 bulbs around the town.

Violinist wins town's soloist competition

MUSICIANS travelled from across Europe to take part in this year's Haverhill Sinfonia Soloist Competition.

Polish violinist Jaroslaw Nadrzycki was the winner of the 19th competition which took place on Saturday at Haverhill Arts Centre.

What began as a modest competition is now a prestigious annual international event, which this year attracted 133 entrants of 30 nationalities.

From these 25 musicians were selected to compete in the final for a total of 36 prizes and the winner won 21 performance engagements together with £5,525.

Jaroslaw Nadrzycki, 24, was born in Poland, where at the age of six he started having regular violin classes. Since 2003, he has studied at the Paderewski Academy of Music in Poznan and University Mozarteum Salzburg. He is currently studying at the Royal Academy of Music with Igor Petrushevski and has won several prizes at international competitions in the last year.

Other winners were: 2, Hannah Marcinowicz (saxophone/British) £250 donated by Haverhill Round Table; 3, Wayne Weng (piano/ Canadian) £200 donated by figleaves.com; 4, Pavel Timofeevsky (piano/ British/Russian) £175 donated by Marchant Manufacturing Co. Ltd; 5, Brian O'Kane (cello / Irish) £150 donated by The Herbert Group; 6, Konstantin Lapshin (piano/Russian) £125; 7, Jayson Gillham (piano/ Australian) £100 donated by Sandarac Ltd.

The adjudicating panel was Kevin Hill, music director, Haverhill Sinfonia and Arnold Sinfonia; Vanessa Latache, head of keyboard, Royal College of Music; Peter Gane, head of wind, brass and percussion, Guildhall School of Music and Drama; and John Todd, head of strings, Birmingham Conservatoire.

Sponsors this year were Days Inn Haverhill, Empire Pianos (Braintree), Evans-Pughe Strings of Hitchin Ltd, figleaves.com, Haverhill Round Table, Marchant Manufacturing Co. Ltd, Mrs Pat Taylor and Mr Nicholas Jarman, Music Sales Group, Printwise (Haverhill) Ltd, STP Stationery, Sandarac Ltd. and The Herbert Group.

Overnight raiders

THIEVES stole equipment and caused damage in three separate incidents.

The spate of burglaries took place on Homefield Road, Haverhill, overnight on Tuesday.

The first incident occurred between 7.30pm and 6.30am the next day when offenders broke into an industrial unit and stole a steam cleaner.

The second burglary happened between 7pm and 7am when the raiders broke into a separate yard by cutting through a fence and breaking in by forcing open a door.

A search was made but nothing was stolen.

The third incident took place between 7pm and 8.50am when a generator was stolen from another industrial unit after the offenders smashed a window.

Anyone with any information should call Pc Andrew Green on (01284) 774100 or call Crimestoppers, anonymously on 0800 555111.

Double bill of contrasting dance styles

TWO contrasting dance companies bring their shows to the Cambridge Arts Theatre for a week of contemporary dance. Choreographer Richard Alston brings his company to the theatre on Tuesday, October 7, and Wednesday, October 8.

Turning 60 this year he celebrates 40 years in dance with three new works. Shuffle It Right features the music of Hoagy Carmichael while Blow Out is set to Songs From Liquid Days by Phillip Glass. The third piece of the evening is Some of the Men In My Life which celebrates pieces Alston has created for dancers like Michael Clarke and Darshan Singh Buller. Then on Friday, October 10, and Saturday, October 11 Phoenix Dance Theatre takes over with two works. The first, Blue Roses, is inspired by Tennessee Williams' play The Glass Menagerie while The American Classics is a trilogy by Jane Dudley whose work is rarely seen in the UK. The shows start at 7.45pm. Tickets are £10-£22.50. Call (01223) 503333.

The Shrew gets a modern makeover

By Jo Deeks

SHAKESPEARE'S Taming of the Shrew gets a 21st Century Makeover in a new production by a Cornwall-based theatre company visiting Haverhill on Thursday, October 9.

The action is transferred from 16th Century Italy to a modern day British university town; Petruchio becomes Paddy; and other "unspeakable liberties" are taken in Miracle Theatre's acclaimed version of The Taming of the Shrew, which comes to Haverhill Arts Centre, starting at 7.30pm.

The production promises to be brought to life as a funny and vibrant interpretation of the "Shakespeare rom-com" with plenty of music and visual comedy and drama to tell the passionate, ironic and tender story of two people falling in love.

■ BROLLY BRIDE . . . Miracle Theatre's five strong cast are bringing the Bard's 'rom com' to the arts centre. CP

This version of the play aims to give a modern relevance to a work over 400 years old.

Director Bill Scott said:

"On the face of it, a play about a shrewish woman bullied into submission by her husband doesn't sound a promising premise for a 21st Century comedy.

"But closer inspection of Shakespeare's play reveals a text not so easily described and characters so richly drawn and full of humanity that they invite a 1,000 different interpretations.

"There are only five performing the play, we didn't want to tell a story that depends on archaic social customs to make any sense, and we didn't want to bore people, but rather we wanted them to enjoy the show as much as Shakespeare's contemporaries enjoyed it, because of its freshness, relevance and humour."

■ Tickets are available from the Haverhill Arts Centre Box Office on (01440) 714140

Intimacy is the name of the game. Spend your time getting closer to the people you love. Letting down your defences will be a relief. You're tired of being the strong one all of the time. Stop taking on so much and start sharing your problems.

You need to push yourself if you're going to get what you want. It may not be easy to gain access to an educational or cultural institution so be patient and wait a wee while. Things could change very soon. Going out on a blind date could be fun.

You're going to be very busy this week with household tasks and general correspondence. Family can help you with childcare and other domestic responsibilities. If you're on your own, rely on your network of friends to help you in testing times.

You're competitive right now, and are happy to go to unusual lengths to outshine your rivals, romantic or otherwise. This is a great time to enter a contest or submit work for review. Trust a friend or lover's criticisms, as they will help polish your work.

Whipping your household into order makes you calm and settled. This is a wonderful time to clear clutter. Hold a yard sale, and donate to charity or you'll feel blocked and tired. A new office or art studio could inspire you with projects you love.

You have a sharp mind, and need mental stimulation to be happy. Fortunately, a clever person who challenges your way of thinking gives you plenty of food for thought as your opposing views give you lots to talk through and wrangle about.

You have a chance to enhance your fiscal fortunes. Try not to fall prey to sentimentality, as it could cloud your judgment with a manipulative relative. Lending them money will only lead to resentment. Keep your cash in the bank, where it belongs.

Your powers of seduction are potent and passion packed. You can get anything from bank loans to concert tickets just by giving people a come hither look. If you have a lover, plan a surprise, for predictable routines have a way of sapping romance.

You're tired of always fitting in with others. Tackling a project for your own pleasure will lift your spirits. You're making more money than usual, but don't fritter it away. You would be wise to save up as there may be heavy expenses ahead.

You work best as part of a team. That's because your ideas get better when you run them past critical thinkers. Take their views to heart, as they will make you a better worker. Acting like people have nothing to teach you will cause you to miss out.

It's worth exploring a way to make money from your creative talents. Your income could arrive in fits and starts, but that won't bother you. During flush times, you need to put some money into savings to keep your afloat during tougher times.

Your love life is crackling with electric excitement. Take an adult's only trip. Or if you're single, you could meet someone special at a nightclub, riverside cafe or basement restaurant. Look for a dark, mysterious type with lots of animal magnetism.

"EVER CONSIDERED BUY TO LET AS AN INVESTMENT"

Have you been put off by insufficient funding, not understanding how tenancy agreements work, worried about the property standing empty?

"WE BELIEVE THERE'S NEVER BEEN A BETTER TIME TO ENTER THE BUY TO LET MARKET"

Consider the facts:-

- House prices have fallen by 11% over the last 12 months.
- More properties for sale than ever before
- Lots of keenly priced bargains to be snapped up.
- People need to live somewhere, if they aren't buying, they are renting
- Demand from tenants means rentals values are going up and most properties are let within 2 weeks of coming to the market.
- The investment yield/return on your money is higher.

If you've always thought about becoming a property investor but never taken the plunge, now's the time to put your toe in the water. If you'd like to talk to one of Haverhill's leading Buy To Let Investor Specialists contact Darren Baugh the Senior Manager at Your Move on 01440 707222, he'll happily meet with you and talk you through the process.

YOUR GUIDE TO MOVING HOME

1 Moving home can be a complicated business and, in the hectic run to the big day, it is all too easy to forget something vital. The Property News offers their readers this handy checklist that should help avoid major pitfalls. We suggest you tick off the items as you deal with them...

WITH FOUR WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Get estimates from removal companies, checking that comprehensive insurance cover is available against damage or loss. Is there a packing and unpacking service? Confirm the date of your move with the firm you have chosen.
- ☐ Check on your home contents insurance policies to ensure that you are covered for the move, and covered at your new address.
- ☐ Make arrangements for your gas and electricity meters (plus water meters where relevant) to be read and all your appliances to be disconnected on the day of your move.
- ☐ Arrange to take over gas and electricity at your new address, and make sure that all appliances will be properly fitted, plumbed or connected.
- ☐ Notify British Telecom and ask them to make the necessary arrangements for a final account at your present address, and for taking over or installing telephone facilities at your new home.
- ☐ Arrange for change of address cards to be printed.

WITH TWO WEEKS TO GO:

- ☐ Confirm all arrangements, times etc, for meter readings, disconnections and reconnections, with authorities and with your buyer and seller.
- ☐ Make sure you have a good stock of packing materials, including sturdy boxes and plenty of string and sticky tape.
- ☐ Begin to throw out unwanted items from attics, wardrobes. What you really don't want you may as well dump now, or send to charity. It's a great time for a good sort out!

WITH ONE WEEK TO GO:

- ☐ Send off change of address cards.
- ☐ Arrange and pay for automatic redirection of your mail by the Post Office.
- ☐ Cancel and pay up accounts for routine delivery services such as milk, groceries, fuel and your Cambridge Evening News. Re-organise these deliveries for your new address.
- ☐ Defrost refrigerators in preparation for move and, if you are moving a freezer and its contents, turn it up to maximum for a couple of days before you move.

WITH ONE DAY TO GO:

- ☐ Complete your packing except for those items you are likely to need overnight, and prepare a picnic for moving day.
- ☐ Have a large enough cash 'float' available to deal with unexpected expenses, and make sure you have collected documents and valuables together in a safe place.
- ☐ Cover carpets which are being left behind, so as to minimise damage during furniture removal.
- ☐ Check through previous lists to make sure nothing has been overlooked, then enjoy a worry-free early night!

2 ON MOVING DAY:

- ☐ Strip beds and pack bedding and nightclothes.
- ☐ Pack items for washing/toiletries.
- ☐ Take down curtains.
- ☐ Take up rugs, carpets, floor coverings, as required.

Ford takes top used car titles

UK buyers thinking of investing in a used car should take note: Ford has been voted tops by two separate panels of used car experts this week.

What Car? put the Ford Focus and Ford Mondeo top of their respective categories ("Small Family Car" and "Family Car"), and put the popular Focus ahead of the opposition to become Britain's overall best used car of 2008.

What Car? car editor Matt Sanger said "It's impossible to argue against the Ford Focus when you see exactly what you get for your money. Just £5,200 (05 examples) will buy you a car that's great to drive, practical, reliable and cheap to run. What more could you want?"

The Ford Focus was also the overwhelming choice of Auto Express's panel of expert judges, which included Jeff Paterson from industry trade bible Glass's Guide and car trader-turned TV presenter Mike Brewer. They summarised their opinions by saying: "When it came to picking an overall winner, there was no argument. The Focus offers an unbeatable all-round package."

■ THE FORD FOCUS... multi-award winning model.

Superfuels are a 'waste of money'

S O - C A L L E D "superfuels" do little to help motorists, according to tests carried out by Which? Car magazine.

The superfuels do not save drivers money, do not improve a car's performance and do not help the environment, Which? Car said.

For many drivers it was "a waste of money" paying over the odds for these types of fuel, the magazine's editor Richard Headland said.

Which? Car tested three superfuels (Shell V-Power, Tesco Super Unleaded and BP Ultimate Diesel) against standard fuels.

It found: ■ Shell V-Power gave a Ford Focus 1.6 a marginal power increase. However, filling the car on this petrol for 12,000 miles will cost £115 more than using Shell's standard petrol. Tesco Super Unleaded actually decreased the power of the Focus.

■ The Volkswagen Golf's high-tech 1.4 TSI engine responded well to Shell V-Power, but there was little to choose between superfuels and ordinary petrol on economy and emissions.

■ THE NEW AUDI S4... high-performance model making its debut at Paris Motor Show next month is definitely eligible for superfuel use, says Mike Lee of Woodditon-based New Marque.

■ The economy and performance of the Renault Mégane 1.5 diesel were both slightly worse using BP Ultimate diesel, the superfuel furthest from the marketing claims in the test.

■ Each superfuel had only a marginal effect on the emissions of measured pollutants, seemingly putting paid to environmental claims.

■ There may be benefits to using superfuels in the long-term as they include detergents to improve engine longevity. However, Which? thinks any break-even point in terms of reduced repair bills could take many years to reach.

Headland said: "For many cars it's a waste of money paying over the odds for so-called 'superfuels'. The standard fuels we tested were all up to the job, whether from a major fuel brand or a supermarket.

"There's no conclusive evidence to show that superfuels are better for your car in the long run. So in a time of high oil prices, why would you choose to pay more?"

Mike Lee, of Woodditon-based specialist car firm New Marque, commented: "I would definitely use high octane fuel for performance cars like Ferraris, Lamborghinis, Porsches and the quicker Audis because they will run quicker and more efficiently - but not with an everyday Focus."

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

History repeated as Gunners slump

Grampian Gunners U15 1
Huntingdon Rowdies U15 2

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, U15 CUP

GRAMPIAN went out to Huntingdon for the second year running, but this time they felt it was a tie they should have won.

A fine passing game by the home side exploited the visitors, but a mixture of poor finishing and good goal-keeping prevented the Gunners progressing into the next round.

Jacob Brown equalised 20 minutes from time, but a goal on the counter-attack saw Rowdies through.

Gunners' new signing Devon Guyon hit the crossbar a minute from time and Luke Halls just failed with the rebound.

Chatteris U16 3
Haverhill Rovers U16 3

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 16C

ROVERS travelled to Chatteris for their second match of the season with only 11 men, due to three injuries.

Things started well for the visitors as they went 1-0 ahead after 10 minutes when Ashcroft slotted home.

Ten minutes later a great free kick from Bavester gave the Chatteris keeper no chance.

Wyatt made it 3-0 with a well-taken shot.

With Rovers coasting three minutes from half time, Chatteris were awarded a penalty, which was converted.

The second half started with both sides having chances, but Chatteris scored next to make 3-2.

The hosts never stopped chasing the game and their persistence paid off when they made it 3-3 with five minutes to go.

Thurlow U11 0
Grampian Gunners U11 4

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

GRAMPIAN were relentless from the start, Jamie Lingard whipping in a cross for Mitchell Forshaw to head home after three minutes.

Jason Moore, George Mustoe and Jack Davis combined in a lovely passing move which finished with Bailey Cassidy putting the ball on a plate for Forshaw to stroke home the second goal.

Grampian were looking strong and just before half time Thurlow managed the first shot on goal, which Lewis Knightly brilliantly pushed round the post.

The final half saw Thurlow's keeper make some fine saves to deny Toby Daly and Aaron Thorn, then Lingard hit the crossbar before man of the match Jack Ferguson smashed in the third goal. Grampian had lots more chances as they pushed Thurlow back with Lewis Whiting coming closest, then a beautiful strike outside the box from Lingard went in the top corner sealing the convincing victory.

Haverhill Rovers U11 22
Chatteris Town U11 B 0

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 11C

ROVERS were looking to get back to winning ways and they did it in style when they welcomed a Chatteris team who were looking for their first win of the season.

The unselfish play of the Rovers team was rewarded as 11 different players got on the scoresheet.

After leading 11-0 at half time, Rovers reshuffled their side for the second period and carried on where they had left off.

Their goalscorers were Alex Carter (7), Tom Middle (4), Jack Trowbridge got a double, Callum Dray, Rhys Shulver, Sam Street, Sean Elsom, Paul Jenkinson, Stephen Boyles, Josh Ruthven and Will Bailey, plus an own goal.

Wilbraham Warriors U11 1
West Wrating U11 7

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 11A

WRATTING started the game determined to make up for the previous defeat, but were foiled by some fine goalkeeping.

After 15 minutes, it was Wilbraham, who took the lead with a rare attack.

Just as the visiting crowd were getting restless, Charlie Ellam equalised from long range, so it was all-square at half time.

The second half started well for Wrating, as Charlie Ripp, Mo Horsley and Ellam scored goals in quick succession to steady the nerves.

A change in personnel only furthered the scoreline with Jack Harvey and Leyton George netting.

In the dying minute, Dion Whitrid was on hand to score and make it 7-1.

West Wrating U12 8
Notley Youth U12 2

WRATTING faced Colchester League opposition in Notley Youth in an exciting Essex-Cambs encounter with bags of entertainment at Bull Lane.

There was excitement from the moment Notley opened the scoring to the final kick when the visitors grabbed their second of the day.

End-to-end action saw Wrating score goals through Lambert (4), Bush (2) Cooper and Stevenson.

Millar, the home goalkeeper, was also kept on his toes with a couple of brave stops, while his Notley counterpart also produced some excellent saves.

Torode, who stepped up a gear to give an influential display, shone for Wrating, as did Sheath, who also performed at his very best once more.

Wrating were denied a further goal when Ankers' penalty kick was bravely saved by the Notley keeper at the foot of the post.

Angels snatch points after super fightback

TWO goals apiece from Lewis Townsend and Mark Bailey helped Delaware Feather Angels to their second successive victory in the league. Starting very slowly, Angels found themselves two goals down inside the first 10 minutes before they clawed their way back into the match. They were level by the 20th minute through a Townsend long-range effort and Bailey sneaking a second from a tight angle. Bailey collected his second and Angels' third, after a defensive mix-up left him to tap into the open goal. Daniel Weaver added a fourth, when his cross caught the Melford keeper off guard and sailed into the top corner, making a 4-2 scoreline at half time. Townsend added the fifth after the break, rising above the Melford defence to place a header home from a well-delivered corner. Melford were able to snatch two further goals themselves, but scoring an own goal at their end, giving Delaware a 6-4 victory. Delaware Feather Angels: Fielden, Ball, Cox, List (Strachan), Strasters, Weaver (Marks), Cullen, Foster, McCormack, Bailey (Tharby), Townsend.

■ Continued from Back Page. 45th and 48th minute as Rovers struggled. Gareth Thomas was adjudged to have pushed someone in the area and a penalty was given. Daniel Beaumont stepped up and sent Campbell the wrong way. Then it was all over when a side-footed volley through a crowd by Barrett gave him his second of the match. Despite three substitutions and a final effort by Jenkin in the dying minutes, which went just wide of the near post, Rovers were roundly beaten.

■ Haverhill have a double bill of Ridgeons League action coming up over the next week, starting on Saturday when fellow strugglers Whitton United will be the visitors to Hamlet Croft. Next up will be a shortish journey to take on Ely City on Tuesday evening.

RUGBY UNION ROUND-UP

Jury's boys triumphant at festival

Haverhill. Rugby came away triumphant when it was represented at the prestigious Suffolk youth sevens festival for the first time on Sunday. Coach Mark Jury took an under-14 squad to the event, played at the Royal Hospital School overlooking the Orwell estuary. Haverhill lost to Ipswich's and Woodbridge's A sides before recording victories against Hadleigh and Bury B in the pool matches. This put them in the knockout chase for the shield, where they were pitted against Bury B once again and, with Toby Pink relishing his role as scrum-half, they won through to the final. Haverhill's opponents in the final were Stowmarket and the encounter bought the best out of the Haverhill boys. They charged into a 31-0 lead with tries from Jacob Willmore, Dominic Farnell (3) and Tom Jury. Substitutions coincided with Stowmarket raising their game and four tries were scored by the opposition before the re-introduction of Haverhill's substituted players could stem the tide. The final nail was put in Stowmarket's coffin by another Farnell try, which ensured that Haverhill would get their hands on the shield with a 38-19 victory.

■ Guinness Premiership side and Haverhill partner club, Saracens held a tag tournament during half time at their recent Premiership clash with Newcastle Falcons.

While Johnny Wilkinson and company took a breather, Haverhill's Mini-Midi section was represented in the under-7 and 8 age group. The Haverhill club laid on coach transport to Saracens ground at Vicarage Road in Watford for the players and parents, who were rewarded with a fine performance against other partnering clubs.

Haverhill ran out 5-4 winners against Harrow and drew 3-3 against Hemel Hempstead. The endeavour of the youngsters must have spurred on the Saracens players as they went on to record an impressive 44-14 win against the Falcons. ■ Members of the Haverhill party are pictured in the crowd at Vicarage Road.

Bergin blast as Haverhill shown exit

Loughton 25 Haverhill 19

EDF ENERGY JUNIOR VASE, SECOND ROUND

PAUL Bergin cited a lack of discipline as Haverhill were beaten 25-19 at Loughton in the second round of the EDF Energy Junior Vase on Saturday.

They took the lead in the opening few minutes through Jake Plumridge's try, which he also converted.

But Loughton surged back to go in at the break 20-7 up, and they pounced after half time to extend their lead with an unconverted score.

Plumridge's try, after an 80-metre dart across the pitch, was converted to draw his side back into the game, and Dave Quinney then touched down from a forwards' drive, but that was the end of their scoring.

"It was rather a tough match as they were quite physical," said skipper Bergin. "It was a slightly frustrating game, but with a bit more discipline and control we might have got away with it. We were competitive, but our penalty count was too high."

"We were very capable of scoring more but if we could have shut up and not antagonised the referee, keeping cool heads and calm, then it would have paid dividends."

FOOTBALL: LATEST NEWS FROM HAMLET CROFT

Halls well with Rovers' double

HARRY Halls scored twice and had a hand in another as Rovers got back to winning ways with victory over Long Melford in the Ridgeons League Cup on Tuesday evening.

The win at Hamlet Croft gave Rovers revenge for a 1-0 defeat they suffered at the hands of their First Division opponents in the FA Vase two weeks earlier.

Haverhill made the best possible start when Halls whipped in a corner on six minutes, which was met at

Haverhill Rovers 3 Long Melford 0

ridgeons league cup, preliminary round the near post by Gareth Thomas, and his header put the home side 1-0 up.

And on 23 minutes, Halls got in behind the Melford defence and volleyed home from the edge of the box, before sealing victory with a back-post shot.

The victory will be a welcome boost for Rovers after they suffered a 3-0 defeat at Dereham on Saturday that saw them slither to the bottom of the Ridgeons League, Premier Division table.

Despite a good start with a shot on the turn from Paul Jenkin at the edge of the box and a 25-yard strike by Jamie Challis which was pushed wide, it was all Dereham after that.

A cross from the left to the feet of the home team's Graham Barrett was rifled into the roof of the net despite a bad first touch. Keeper Ed Campbell had no chance.

The 37th-minute goal was soon followed by two in the
